Describe a time you saw something interesting on social media

Describe a time you saw something interesting on social media IELTS Cue Card

Describe a time you saw something interesting on social media IELTS Cue Card with band 9 answer and part 3 follow up questions

In this lesson from simply IELTS, you will know how to Describe a time you saw something interesting on social media band 9 IELTS Speaking Cue Card part 2 and part 3 follow up questions.

Describe a time you saw something interesting on social media IELTS Cue Card

You should say

- When it was?
- Where you saw it?
- What you saw?
- And explain why you think it was interesting?

Band 9 Model Answer to Describe a time you saw something interesting on social media IELTS Cue Card

- I think online media has turned into a vital piece of our life these days.

- Among the distinctive online media stages, I use Instagram the most.
- One of my #1 Instagram channels is 10-minute artworks.
- I discover this channel exceptionally fascinating, and I'm continually hanging tight for their new posts.
- The channel posts about various expressions and artworks which individuals can learn in less than 10 minutes.
- I previously saw this channel a year prior, during the crown lockdown.
- I had a ton of available energy and I needed to use my time accomplishing something useful.
- As I was looking through Instagram posts, I ran over one of their posts.
- In the post, they had instructed about block painting.
- I'm bad at painting but rather when I ran over the composition procedure, I felt even I could do it.
- It was extremely straightforward.
- I attempted it and it came about great.
- At the point when my mom saw it, she chose to get it covered and balanced it in the parlor.
- I have been following the channel from that point forward.
- Their channel has such countless intriguing posts about such ventures.
- They show these truly attractive expressions and artworks projects, which seem as though no one but experts might have made.
- In any case, then, at that point they depict the easiest techniques for making them beneath the task pictures.
- This is the thing that makes their channel fascinating to me.
- I figure anybody can improve their entire house, just by following their channel.
- Also, there is an alternate appeal about beautifying our home by objects we have made ourselves.
- I have prescribed their channel to a considerable lot of my companions and cousins.
- Every one of them feel that it is a gold mine.

Speaking Part 3 Follow-Up Questions to Describe a time you saw something interesting on social media

1. Why do individuals jump at the chance to utilize web-based media?

   I think the principle motivation behind why individuals utilize online media is to keep in contact in with loved ones.

   Another significant explanation is to stay up to date with the most recent news and data. To wrap things up, it is only an approach to occupy spare time.

2. What sort of things are well known via web-based media?

   Numerous things are well known via web-based media, however the most famous is to share pictures and recordings about oneself. Individuals additionally share the most recent news and data they find intriguing.

   These days, even organizations have begun utilizing web-based media to publicize their items and make a name for their image.

3. What are the benefits and weaknesses of utilizing online media?

   I think the fundamental benefit of utilizing online media is that it is extremely simple to get to data, give data and impart by means of web-based media. It allows us to make companions and stay in contact with old companions without any problem.

   Then again, the primary downside is the absence of protection and absence of dependable data. There are many occurrences where individuals have utilized online media to share bogus data for instance, as of late individuals spread falsehood about the unsafe impacts of Coronavirus inoculation, which caused a great deal of reluctance among individuals about immunization.

4. What do you ponder making companions on interpersonal interaction locales?

   I believe it's undependable to make companions via web-based media since it's extremely simple for individuals to profess to be another person. I figure we ought to rather utilize it to stay in contact with genuine companions.

   :